

CUSTOM-HOUSE OFFICERS.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

COMMUNICATING

Information of the amount paid to the Custom-house officers of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, under the provisions of the second section of the act making appropriations for the civil and diplomatic expenses of Government for the year eighteen hundred and thirty-four.

JANUARY 27, 1835.

Read, and laid upon the table.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

January 26, 1835.

SIR: The House of Representatives, by its resolution of the 23d instant, having directed me to "communicate to the House the amount paid to the different custom-house officers of Boston, New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, under the provisions of the second section of the act making appropriations for the civil and diplomatic expenses of Government for the year eighteen hundred and thirty-four," I have the honor, herewith, to transmit to the House a report from the Register of the Treasury, by which it will be seen that nothing has yet been paid to the custom-house officers mentioned, under the provisions of the second section of that act.

I am, very respectfully,

Your obedient servant,

LEVI WOODBURY,

Secretary of the Treasury.

Hon. JOHN BELL,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Register's Office, January 26, 1835.

SIR: I have the honor to state, in compliance with your reference to this office of the resolution of the House of Representatives of the 23d instant, that no payments have as yet been made under the 2d section of the act of 27th June, 1834, to the custom-house officers at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, or Baltimore.

I have the honor to be, sir,

Your obedient servant,

T. L. SMITH.

Hon. LEVI WOODBURY,
Secretary of the Treasury.
